Virginia Hot Springs Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Virginia Hot Springs, May 21.—Automobile tours and long horseback rides continue as features of outdoor life here, while dinner parties in the Japanese-room and teas at the Casino have filled in the week's calendar in the hotel colony. Preparations for the summer continue in the cottage colony, and every day adds the arrival of another addition to the villa throng already assembled.
The most notable motor party of the week arrived on Sunday afternoon from Boston, and included Mrs. Charles M. Hinkle, of Oysterville, and Miss Joan Hinkle, who joined Mr. Hinkle at the Homestead. The party was joined at Washington by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, Mrs. Frank Ellis and the first secretary of the British embassy, A. M. Annis, of London.
Mr. and Mrs. George K. Birge, of Buffalo, who motored all the way, and arrived here at midnight last Saturday, have made the Springs their headquarters while taking a number of side trips in this section.
Major W. F. Anderson came in his big touring car from New York on Thursday with a party, including Thomas H. Stirling and John Gibson, of Mechanicsville, N. Y., and George I. Miller, William Sangster, William A. Luke and William A. Luke, Jr., of New York, and on the same day Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Spackman, of Coatesville, Pa., who are en route to New York from Atlanta, stopped at the Springs for a visit of several days.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lindsay, who came from New York in their machine, started on the return trip on Wednesday.
Miss Ruth Harrison was the sponsor for a horseback party, which went to Natural Bridge on Monday over the old Indian trails, and returned yesterday after several days' of visiting through the Valley of Virginia. Among those in the party were Miss Frances Smith, Dr. W. A. James and John Scarborough.

A series of baseball games at Recreation Park, beginning on Thursday afternoon for the week-end visitors, has drawn large throngs of prominent society folk. The Virginia Hot Springs Baseball Club has arranged an interesting set of games, one of which will be with a picked nine from the hotel and cottage colonies for charity.
An old Virginia cakewalk, given by negro employees in the crimson ballroom of the Homestead on Thursday evening was attended by a large crowd. The judges for the cakewalk, which followed a program of old plantation melodies by glee singers and string players were H. N. Rawlins and George Bachelder.
Mrs. M. V. R. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant Mason, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Denny, Mrs. H. N. Rawlins, Mrs. George Bachelder, Mrs. Robert Pitcairn, Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Carter, Mrs. Robert B. Potter, Miss Marguerite McCormick, Miss Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harper Benedict, Walter Trimble, J. C. Westervelt, Judge John R. Reed, Ivery W. Adams and Robert Waller were in the audience witnessing the cakewalk.
Comet parties in the tower of the hotel and in the villas have been varied several times during the week by parties who have left the Homestead at 1 and 2 A. M. for Flag Rock, the highest peak in this vicinity, and after viewing the comet, return has been made in time for an early breakfast.
Mr. and Mrs. George Guntion, whose home, Guntion Lodge, is high up on the mountain side, have entertained three or four parties at late suppers, and afterwards the guests have viewed the comet through Mr. Guntion's telescope, one of the largest in the State.

The old Colonial Hotels, at the Healing Springs and Warm Springs, which have opened for the summer, and the nearby farm houses, where chicken dinners and waffle suppers are a feature, including The Oaks, Passifern Farm and the Daniel Boone Log Cabin, have been doing a rushing business with many luncheons, dinners, and late supper parties, not to mention numerous informal teas given by driving and riding parties during the late afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff entertained a motor party, including Mrs. Frank Ellis and A. M. Annis at the Healing Springs on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Leiner Dunn, who are spending a few days at Gramercy Farm, at the entrance to Dunn's Gap, were hosts for a luncheon party at the Daniel Boone Log Cabin on Sunday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Dunn.
Mr. and Mrs. John Philip Sousa were luncheon guests at the Log Cabin on Sunday, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Guntion.
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lewis entertained a luncheon party at Passifern Farm, for Mr. and Mrs. William A. Flynn, of Pittsburgh, who are spending their honeymoon here.
Mrs. Robert Herriek, wife of Robert Herriek, the author, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given on Saturday afternoon at the Oaks, by Mrs. Edwin Barnes.
Others who have entertained at old-fashioned Virginia dinners or suppers have included Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Marburg, Mrs. C. Saint-Jacques, Mr. and Mrs. Butler Sheldon, Representative George Edmund Ross, General C. C. Byrne, former Governor Franklin Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Doremus, George W. Roydhouse, Miss Katherine Farwell, Mrs. Latham Bartlett and Mrs. W. H. Souder, who entertained for Miss Martha Souder, who will be married next Wednesday in St. Louis to John H. Overall, who was also in the party.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Fairfax Whiting and the Misses Alice and Julia Whiting have arrived from Washington and opened Barton Lodge, the home of the late Seth Barton French, for the summer. Mrs. French and her mother, Mrs. Walker French, with the former's two children, Miss Clarice French and Barton French, called on Wednesday for a six months' trip abroad.
Senator and Mrs. Guggenheim, of Washington, have leased one of the hotel cottages for the summer, and are expected to-night with their family.
Clendenin J. Ryan, the son of Thomas Fortune Ryan, spent a portion of the week here looking for a villa for the summer for his family, who are now at Oak Ridge.
Miss Mary P. Page, of Boyce, has joined Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mayo, at the Homestead.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond have taken a hotel cottage for the remainder of the spring season, and will arrive to-morrow morning, and will they will entertain a number of friends from Washington and New York.
One of the most attractive affairs of the week was the birthday anniversary stag dinner, given in compliment to Dr. Edgar A. Pole, on Tuesday evening at Ben Venue. A smoker and bridge followed for the company, which included Dr. Frank P. Hopkins, Judge W. Howard McClintic, Harry Tinsley Taliaferro, W. C. Lininger, T. W. Jordan and Carl Hillman.

days in the city this week with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bishop are spending a few weeks visiting in the Northern cities.
Mrs. M. L. Hendren is in Greensboro this week, attending the commencement of Greensboro Female College.
Mrs. R. A. Nunn has returned home after a visit to her parents in New Orleans, La.
Mrs. E. F. Fife and daughter, Miss Elmer, have gone to Thomasville, N. C., after spending several weeks with relatives here.
Miss Mannie Baxter has returned home from Greensboro Female College, where she graduated in the department of music.
Mrs. C. E. Fox is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Vick, in Selma, N. C.
Miss May Pulford is spending a few weeks with friends in Greensboro.
Miss Daisy Edwards spent several days this week with relatives in Silver City, N. C.

splendid home of State Treasurer B. F. Lacy. A peculiar interest was imparted through the fact that Miss Lacy will sail from New York, June 2, for Europe, a feature of her trip being attendance upon the commencement of Oxford University, England, where her brother, Ben Lacy, graduates as a North Carolina Rhodes scholarship man.
Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. John Andrews delightfully entertained her bridge club.
Mrs. William Person, of Sparrow's Point, Md., was the guest of honor Wednesday afternoon for an informal card party by Mrs. S. F. Telfair.
Invitations are issued for a bridge party to be given next Tuesday in honor of Miss Kate Barbee by Miss Ruby Norris. The engagement of Miss Barbee and Mr. Hart, of Tarboro, has recently been announced.
At the meeting of the Fortnightly Review Club Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. James H. Pol succeeded Mrs. Charles McKimmon as president, the other officers being Mrs. William Grimes, secretary, and Mrs. George C. Strong, librarian. The club decided to discontinue the circulation of books and devote every club energy to the success of the literary program. The club will study during 1910-1911, season Scotch literature.
Mrs. Charles McKimmon was hostess Tuesday, "North Carolina in Literature," being the special study.
Mrs. Jessie M. Brown, of Statesville, was the guest of honor for a charming party Saturday afternoon by Miss Uzzell, in which progressive trail was the game played. The tables were assigned with hand-painted wild roses, with score-cards similarly decorated. The color scheme for the decorations was pink and white.
Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. N. Jones entertained the Olla Podrida Club. The literary features of the program included papers by Mrs. H. E. Litchford, on "Christian Reid"; a paper by Mrs. Henry Briggs, on "Edwin W. Fuller"; and one by Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, on "John Charles McNeill."

The season for the Tuesday Afternoon Club closed this week with a most enjoyable meeting, with Mrs. S. W. Erwer, as hostess. There were three papers, closing a series of studies of myths and legends, carried on quite profitably this season.
Especially interesting in Raleigh social circles was the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Gertrude Winston, daughter of Ex-Judge and Mrs. Robert W. Winston, and Frank Blunt Webb, of Durham. No wedding this season anywhere in the State will command more widespread and deep social interest. The marriage is to be on Wednesday evening, June 1, in Christ Episcopal Church, in this city. A unique and especially interesting feature will be that Bishop Horner, of the Diocese of Asheville, uncle of the bride, and Bishop Cheshire, of the Diocese of North Carolina, uncle of the bridegroom, will perform the marriage service. They will be assisted by Rev. M. A. Barber, rector of the parish.
On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. W. Roberts was hostess for a bridge party in honor of Miss Gertrude Winston, who is to become the bride of Frank Blunt Webb, of Durham. Mrs. Roberts's party was a most enjoyable affair, and the decorations most tasteful in every detail, affording a lovely setting for the brilliant company of guests.
Mrs. Alfred Williams entertained the Five Hundred Club Friday afternoon. In addition to playing the fascinating game from which the club takes its name, Mrs. Williams's guests were treated to dainty refreshments.

Newbern Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newbern, N. C., May 21.—Mrs. B. B. Davenport is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Lynn, in Greensboro. Charles R. Thomas, member of Congress from this district, spent several
